About the Conference:
Now-a-days research is more of an interdisciplinary nature. Mathematics and Statistics are the subjects which find applications and links with every field. In field of Commerce, Economics and Management, Mathematics/Statistics has found a lot of applicability. Many areas related to Commerce like Economics, Finance and Business require knowledge of Mathematics/Statistics. Mathematical and Statistical tools are useful to solve local as well as global research problems.

The College has been instrumental in providing quality education and continuous education to its students. As a part of the continuous teaching-learning process in the field of Commerce, Trade, Services, Economics, Banking, Finance and Business Environment, Ness Wadia College of Commerce is organizing Late Prin. Dr. B. S. Bhanage Memorial Two Day National Conference on “Recent Trends in Mathematics and Statistics with Applications to Commerce, Economics, Finance and Management” on 21-22 March, 2016.

Objectives of the Conference:
The purpose of the Conference is to bring together academicians and practitioners who are interested in Mathematics, Statistics and use of Mathematical/Statistical techniques in Business, Economics and Finance. We plan to invite researchers, whose research work relates to Mathematics, Statistics or applications of Mathematics/Statistics to Business, Economics and Finance. We have included a wide range of topics with the aim to expose participants to models, ideas and techniques that they may not be aware of, and to foster future collaboration. In recent years many of the classical Mathematical/Statistical techniques in Business, Commerce, Economics and Finance have been under attack, and now efficient markets can no longer be assumed by default. The result is that many more complex real world interactions need to be taken into account, meaning that the techniques and models from other areas such as Real Options and Operations Research will be important for the future applications of Mathematics/Statistics in Commerce, Economics, Finance and Management.
